

Index

A – K

27	Age Sex Composition
37	Birthplace
118	Built Heritage
93	Coastal Environment
60	Community Safety
60	Criminal Offences
63	Criminal Offenders
114	Cultural Assets
52	Deprivation Index
56	Dwellings
75	Economy
40	Education
76	Employment Status
89	Environment
108	Environmental Pressures
32	Ethnic Groups
7	Executive Summary
59	Families
49	Heating
41	Highest Qualifications
56	Home Ownership + Tenure
56	Household Composition
56	Households + Families
43	Income
79	Industry

L - Z

101	Land
35	Languages Spoken
19	Māori Population
117	Marae
33	Marital Status
5	Mayors Message
3	Mihi
50	Motor Vehicles
89	Natural Heritage
77	Occupation
12	People
12	Population
38	Religious Affiliation
73	Road Crash Black Spots
69	Road Safety
114	Schools
40	Socio Economic Status
46	Sources of Income
107	Tangata Whenua
22	Tangata Whenua
49	Telecommunications
87	Tourism
84	Transportation
82	Unemployment
66	Victims of Criminal Offences
75	Work + Labour Force

Lakes Waikareiti & Waikaremoana ~ The Source of Te Wairoa River

“Wairoa Hopupu Honengenenge Matangi Rau”

A feature of Te Wairoa River is the opposing currents within the river.

These currents become one as they enter the river mouth.

This reflects a traditional trait of the Wairoa people to have the ability to put aside their differences when engaged in a common purpose.

