

TIME IS RUNNING OUT TO VOTE

The Wairoa Local Body election closes in just four days. Time is running out for you to have your say.

If you haven't voted it's not too late. For those who have received their voting papers in the mail, you may be running out of time to lodge them by post, but you can fill in your voting papers and drop them off at the Wairoa District Council offices in Queen Street. Voting closes at midday on Saturday October 8.

Locally the Wairoa District Council is made up of a Mayor, who is elected at large, and six councillors. The councillor seats are split into three Māori Ward seats and three General Ward seats.

As well as voting in the Wairoa District Council election, Wairoa voters will be able to vote for the Wairoa representative on the Hawke's Bay Regional Council, and for those on the Māori

Electoral Roll, the new northern ward seat.

To be able to vote in the upcoming Wairoa District Council election you need to be registered on the Parliamentary Roll. If you are a registered voter and have not received your voting papers, please contact the Wairoa District Council Electoral Officer Juanita Savage on 06 838 7309.

Anyone wanting to vote who is not enrolled may need to arrange a special vote by contacting the Wairoa District Council Electoral Officer Juanita Savage at the Council by phoning 06 838 7309.

The Wairoa District Council website also has a range of electoral information including answers to Frequently Asked Questions, www.wairoadc.govt.nz
