The Wairoa Library Apricot Tree Draw

Did you save seeds from things you have grown in the Seed Exchange? Bring these saved seeds back to the library and go into the draw to win two apricot trees (the winner will take both trees).

Put your seeds into the brown envelopes provided at the library's Seed Exchange station and include your name, email address and name of the seed.

Drawn 31 January 2025, the winner will be notified by email.

Shop Window Decoration Competition

Wairoa businesses are invited to get into the Christmas spirit by decorating their shop windows!

The competition opened this week and closes 5pm Wednesday 11 December. To enter you business head to www.wairoadc.govt.nz/a-kiwiana-christmas/christmas-window-display-competition

Engagement is underway on flood mitigation options for Wairoa.

For more information on the Wairoa Flood Mitigation Project, including the flood mitigation options being considered, visit: www.wairoafloodproject.co.nz.

Wairoa District Council will join the other three Hawke's Bay territorial authorities to develop a business case as part of the Government's new Local Water Done Well plan.

Wairoa's specific arrangements, proven cost savings, retention of local and institutional knowledge and future resilience and service security are top considerations.

Public consultation on options is likely to occur in early 2025.

NOTICE OF REPRESENTATION ARRANGEMENTS REVIEW BASIS OF ELECTION FOR 2025 LOCAL ELECTIONS

On 1 October 2024, Wairoa District Council gave public notice of its final proposal for representation arrangements to apply for the Council for the elections to be held on 11 October 2025. Notification of the right to appeal was also given. No valid appeals were received in respect of the resolution, therefore the representation arrangements for Wairoa District Council's 2025 local elections will be the same as in the final proposal, specifically:

- a) The Wairoa District Council to comprise the mayor elected at large and six councillors elected from two district-wide wards:
- (i) Wairoa General Ward, represented by three general ward councillors; and
 - (ii) Wairoa Māori Ward, represented by three Māori ward councillors.
- b) There be no community boards.

Any queries regarding the Council's decision should be addressed to: Wairoa District Council PO Box 54 Wairoa 4160 or alternatively, can be emailed to: feedback@wairoadc.govt.nz
